ORDER

19-CV-7787 (AT) (KNF)

On September 17, 2020, the Court ordered, inter alia, that “the parties shall have 60 days from the date of this order to conduct discovery limited to ‘the liquidation of the AnswerNet Note and the transfer of funds to Spiro Harrison.’” Docket Entry No. 83. Moriah Education Management LLC made a cross-motion for authorization to pay the proceeds of the AnswerNet note to the plaintiff, Docket Entry No. 92, arguing that granting its cross-motion will moot any post-September 17, 2020 order discovery served on them by the plaintiff. Moriah Education Management LLC and nonparties Black Dolphin Capital Management, LLC and Greg Zilberstein (“the movants”) requested “an extension of the November 16, 2020 deadline until two weeks after the Court resolves the mootness issue,” Docket Entry No. 103, which the plaintiff opposed. Moriah Education Management LLC’s cross- motion was granted, and the Court found that discovery ordered to be conducted in the September 17, 2020 order was not moot. See Docket Entry No. 107. The movants shall provide the discovery at issue, requested by the plaintiff following the September 17, 2020 order, on or before December 10, 2020.
